Enchanting Salzburg

Salzburg, the birthplace of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart and the setting of the classic Sound of Music, Enchanting Salzburg
is straight out of a fairytale. In the winding streets, music wafts from open windows, life moves at a salubrious pace and the world just seems perfect. Tick off the popular sights such as the Salzburg Cathedral, Mozart's birthplace, and the Schloss Mirabell, with its stunning gardens, and then spend time walking up and down, the city's most popular street – Getreidegasse. The Sound of Music fans can go on a tour of the locations featured in the film and relive its many magical moments.